- b. Residents can raise concerns or suggestions through a designated channel provided by the committee.
- c. Important announcements and decisions will be communicated through notice boards and other appropriate means.

F. Discipline and Grievance Handling:

I. Establishment and Enforcement of Rules:

- a. The Men's Hostel Committee acknowledges the importance of maintaining a structured and conducive living environment for hostel residents. To achieve this, the committee will collaboratively establish clear and comprehensive rules and regulations governing the conduct and responsibilities of the residents.
- b. The rules will cover aspects such as quiet hours, visitation policies, cleanliness standards, and any other pertinent matters that contribute to the well-being and harmony of the hostel community.
- c. The committee will ensure effective communication of these rules to all residents through orientation sessions, written documents, and conspicuous display in common areas.

II. Grievance Handling

- a. The committee is committed to fostering an atmosphere of open communication and trust among hostel residents. In the event of grievances, a systematic and fair procedure will be in place for residents to address their concerns.
- b. Residents are encouraged to submit their grievances in writing to the Hostel Secretary or through a designated online portal. Grievances will be treated confidentially to protect the privacy and well-being of all parties involved.

- c. The committee will ensure timely acknowledgment of grievances and initiate a thorough investigation process. During this phase, the individuals involved will be provided with an opportunity to present their perspectives.

III. Conflict Resolution

- a. Emphasis will be placed on resolving grievances through mediation and dialogue, promoting a harmonious hostel community.
- b. Mediation sessions may involve a neutral third party, and all efforts will be made to reach an amicable resolution that addresses the concerns of all parties involved.

IV. Reporting of Serious Disciplinary Issues

- a. Recognizing that some issues may require the intervention of higher authorities, the committee is committed to promptly reporting serious disciplinary matters to the college authorities.
- b. Serious disciplinary issues may include but are not limited to instances of drug abuse, violence, theft, or any behaviour that poses a threat to the safety and well-being of hostel residents.
- c. The committee will maintain transparent communication with college authorities, providing detailed reports on the nature of the incident, the actions taken at the hostel level, and any recommendations for further intervention.

V. Collaboration with College Authorities

- a. The committee will work closely with college authorities to address serious disciplinary matters. This collaboration may involve joint investigations, consultations with college counsellors, and the implementation of appropriate sanctions or interventions as deemed necessary.
- b. The goal is to ensure a consistent and fair approach to disciplinary matters, promoting a sense of accountability and responsibility among hostel residents.

G. Review and Amendments:

The SOP will be reviewed annually or as needed to ensure its relevance. Amendments can be proposed by any committee member and will be discussed and approved collectively.
